SUBJECT.

In re arrears of Sutta due on certain inam lands of the Sri Rishya Sringeswaraswami temple at Kigga -

From

The Dy Commr, Kadur District.

No. 413 Dated 7th Feb: 1905

The Dy Commr reports that there are inam lands in the Heggade & Hadlubyle villages in the Sringeri Jahagir, attached to the Kigga Sri Rishya Sringeswaraswami temple. The lands appear to have been leased out to one Annaiya Heggade from whom 95 Khandis of paddy are reported to be due. The Dy Commr states that he has issued orders for the recovery of the arrears. 93 Khandis are also reported to be due by one Kariga Nagappaiya who got the lands in Hadlubyle by transfer from Annaiyaji.

MGCEB-2 0-21-1 05

As Nagappaiya is reported not to possess any property - moveable or immoveable - from which the arrears could be recovered, the D/Commr. recommends the writing off the accounts of the said arrears. His letter clearly explains the facts of the case.

Submitted with a draft, approving of the action taken by the D/Commr.

From

Secretary to the Government of Mysore,

Mizrai Department.

Sir,

I have the honor to bring to your notice that the Sri Rishyasringeswaraswamy temple at Kigga, Koppa Taluk, holds some Inam lands in the villages of Heggadde and Hadlibyle situated in the Sringeri Jaghir, and that these lands were leased to one Annaiya Heggade on condition of his paying to the temple 43 candies of paddy a year, viz 25 candies for the Heggadde lands and 18 candies for the lands in the Hadlibyle village In 1893-94 (Vijaya) Annaya Heggade transferred the lands in Hadlibyle to one Katige Nagappaiya on condition of his paying

18 candies of paddy direct to the temple, having himself paid the gutta of the year Jaya 1894-95. The then Deputy Amildar of the Sringeri Jaghir accepted the transfer on 12. 4. 1893, but did not intimate the fact to the Kojpa Amildar nor to the temple authorities at Kigga. Hence the lands in Hadlubyle continued to be shewn in Annaiya Heggade's name in the temple accounts year after year and the gutta paddy payable therefor was also shewn as due by him. In the result, Annaiya Heggade was shewn in the temple accounts to be in arrear on account of the gutta paddy from the year 1895-96 amounting to 387 candies as noted

1895-96 — 43
1896 97 — 43
1897-98 — 43
1898-99 — 43
1899-00 — 43
1900-01 — 43
1901-02 — 43
1902-03 — 43
1903-04 — 43

387

in the margin*, at the rate of 43 candies a year. Towards this credit was given in the Temple accounts to Annaiya Heggade for 69 candies of paddy, paid by Nagappayya in the years years 1897-98 and 1898-99 as well as a cash payment of Rs 110/- made by the Heggade himself in the year 1903-04. Taking the cash payment as equivalent to 110 candies of paddy at one rupee per kandy of 45 seers the balance of demand against Annaiya Heggade was shewn as 208 candies at the end of the year 1903-04.

2 When Annaiya Heggade was pres-sed for the balance of the said 208 candies of paddy due by him according to the temple accounts, he represented that he had nothing to do with the gutta paddy on account of the lands at Hadlibyle - which he had transferred to Nagappaiya in 1893, that he was responsible only for the gutta paddy of the Heggadde lands, which for 9 years from 1895-96 to 1903-04 - would amount to 225 candies at 25 candies per year and that towards this he had paid 60 candies to Appaji Bhatta and 20 candies to Ganesh Bhatta and Rs 110/- in cash.

3. As Annaiya Heggade has not produced Appaji Bhatta's receipts for the payment of the 60 candies of paddy alleged to have been made to him, the former cannot be absolved from his liabilities to the temple in respect of that item. Ganesh Bhatta's acknowledgment for 20 candies having been produced, Annaiya Heggade is entitled to credit to that extent in kind, as well as for 110 candies, being the equivalent of the cash payment of Rs. 110 made by him in 1903-04.

4 Thus, towards a demand against him of 225 candies of paddy for the Heggadde lands in his enjoyment for 9 years from 1895-96, Annaiya Heggade may be credited with a payment of 130 candies This leaves a balance of 95 candies still due by him and I have issued orders for the recovery of the same from him.

5. Regarding Nagappaiya's liability, it is stated that Nagappaiya admits his indebtedness and while stating that he has made some payments to the former Parpathegar of the temple pleads inability to pay the balance. He is not sure what payments he has made nor has he produced any receipts from the Temple Parpathegar. He alleges that these receipts were destroyed when his house was burnt down. For the 9 years ending with 30th June 1904, the amount of paddy due by Nagappaiya to the temple amounted to 162 candies at 18 candies per year, towards which he has paid 69 candies in the years 1897-98 and 1898-99, leaving a balance of 93 candies still due by him. As the Amildar reports that Nagappaiya possesses no moveable or immoveable property by the sale of which the balance could be recovered, I beg to recommend that sanction may be accorded to write it off the temple accounts

Sir,

Adverting to the concluding portion of para 2 of G. O. No. 3410, dated 13th March 1905, calling for a report as to my proposal to dispose of the Inam lands in the villages of Heggadde and Hadlu-hegde, belonging to the temple of Sri Rishya Shringeshwaraswamy at Kigga, situated in the Shringeri Jahagir, I have the honor to state that Cuncinja Heggade having paid up his pensions arrear plus Rs 457- being the amount of lease relating to the current year, the lands in the Heggadde village in his Kate may remain undisturbed.

2. As regards the Inam lands which were cultivated by Katte Haggappaiya in the Kadlubyhu village, one Venkamma of Mudgode has put in his darkhast for taking the land on lease for a period of 4 years on the following chavaya terms.

1905-06	1906-07	1907-08	1908-09
Rs 4.8.0	Rs 9.0.0	Rs 13.8.0	Rs 18.0.0

As the Amildar has reported that none else are prepared to come forward to take up the lands of Kadlubyhu, I am of opinion that the proposal of the Amildar to lease out the lands in question to Venkamma in accordance with his darkhast instead of allowing the same to lie waste may be approved.

3. Kannada papers sending with the Koppa Amildar's report No. 628 dated 7th February 1906 are herewith submitted for reference.
